What drove fund performance during the past six months?

- U.S. equity markets navigated a period shaped by competing forces over the 6-month period ended December 31, 2025: optimism surrounding monetary easing and caution driven by economic growth and valuation concerns.
- Large cap stocks returned 11%, while the covered call index (CBOE S&P 500 BuyWrite Index) delivered a respectable 10% return over the period.
- At period end, approximately 36% of the portfolio was unhedged, with long-term capital growth the primary objective.
- As of the end of the period, the rest of the Fund was invested in companies with covered call options.
- Contributing positively to performance were several names in the consumer discretionary sector.
- Conversely, select holdings in the industrials sector detracted from relative performance.
